

Mumbai's salaam to Art Deco

The hand rendered watercolour postcards depicting Eros Cinema, Soona Mahal and Rajjab Mahal

Tomorrow (April 28) is World Art Deco Day. It came into existence to commemorate the date in 1925 when the International Exhibition of Modern Decorative and Industrial Arts opened its doors to the public in Paris. It was this event that inspired the term 'Art Deco' to describe this age's Jazz-inspired design style and inspiration. To ring in the day, we suggest you check out Art Deco Trust Mumbai's recently launched hand rendered watercolour postcards that highlight some of the marquee buildings from Mumbai's UNESCO World Heritage Site-winning ensemble. From Soona Mahal and Dhanraj Mahal to Eros, Liberty and Regal cinemas, these postcards are a collectors' delight, whether you're a heritage nerd, appreciate watercolour art, or simply can't have enough souvenirs dedicated to the Maximum City.
