

Spotting Art Deco

To celebrate National Education Day, Art Deco Mumbai hosted a special programme for students in grades seven to 10 from Bai BS Bengallee Girls High School in Marine Lines. Held yesterday, the event featured an engaging presentation on Mumbai's Art Deco architecture and heritage precincts. "We wanted to use relatable language and examples for their easy understanding such as Metro and Eros Cinema," said

Interactive slide used as part of the presentation. PICS COURTESY/ART DECO MUMBAI (inset) Suhasini Krishnan, outreach and content head. The lecture introduced the students to the historical significance of Art Deco architecture and taught them key

Spot the difference

identifying features. "The children were excited to learn about this. Our aim is to make heritage and its knowledge accessible to students," said founder Atul Kumar.